CATHEDRAL HIGH SCHOOL

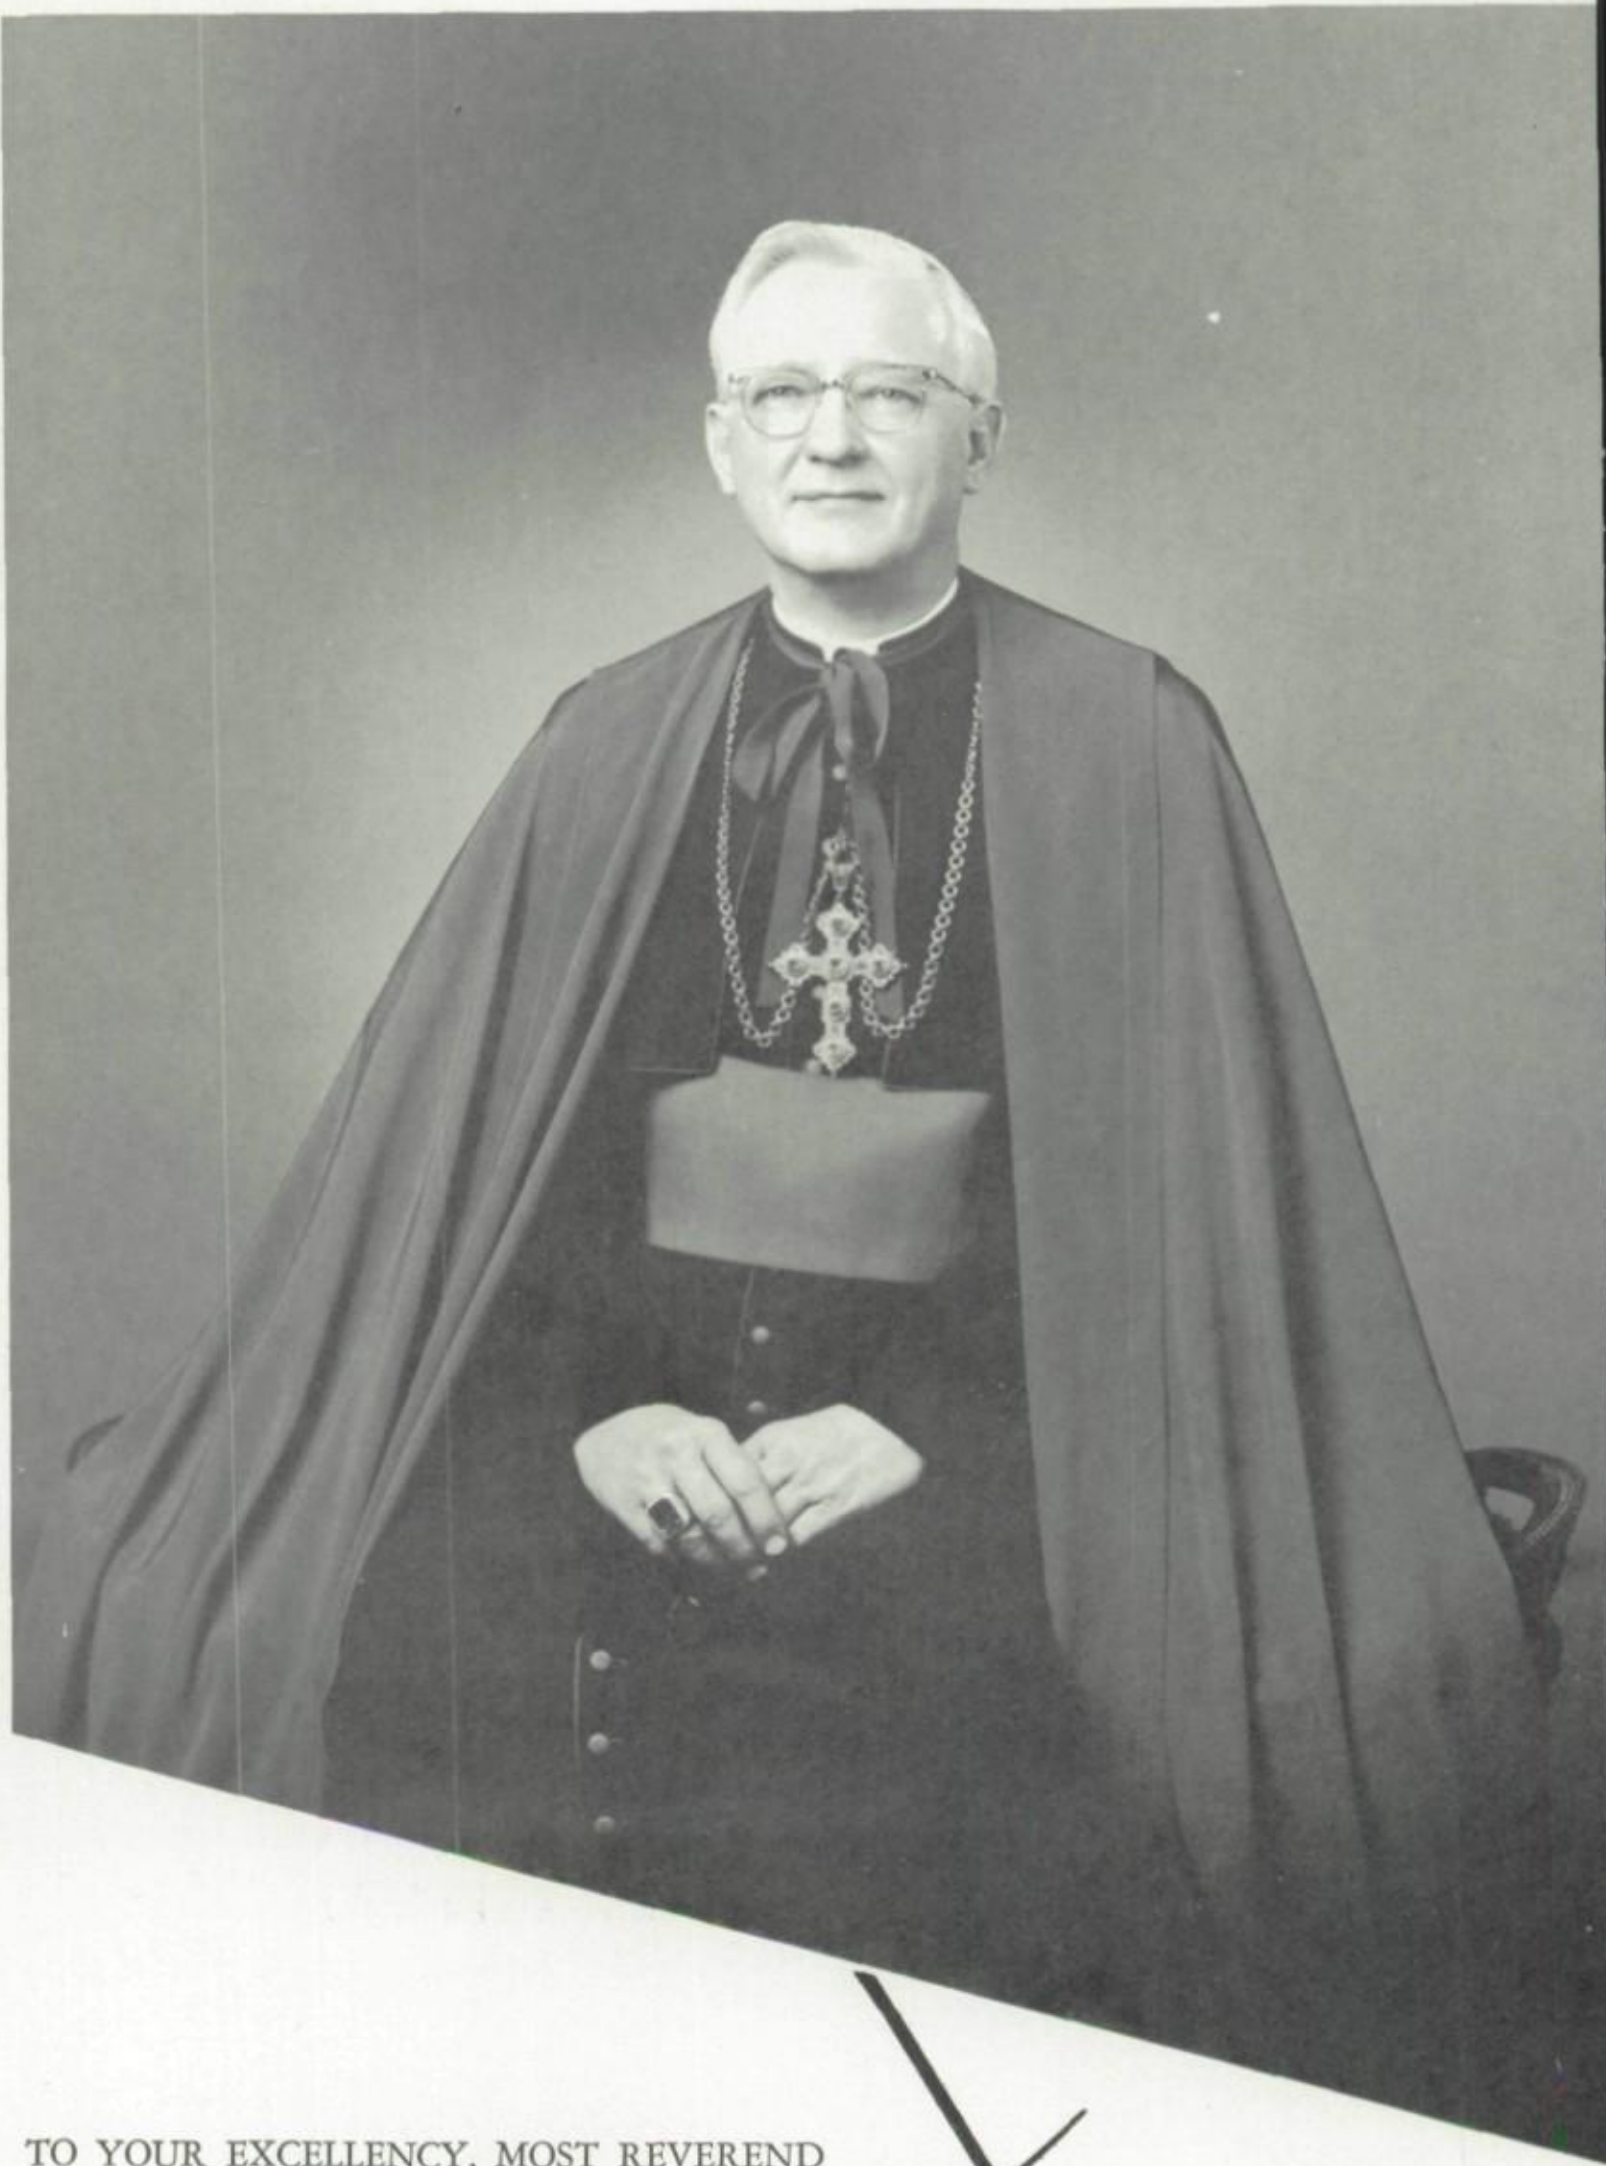

1963 CRUSADER

CATHEDRAL HIGH SCHOOL
BELLEVILLE, ILLINOIS

TO YOUR EXCELLENCY, MOST REVEREND
ALBERT R. ZUROWESTE, BISHOP OF BELLEVILLE

There are no words which can express our feelings for one who has given such untiring service to the youth of our diocese. With the construction of Althoff High School you continue to show your interest in us. As an expression of our appreciation, we the staff of the "63" Crusader wish to dedicate this annual to you.

MONSIGNOR GREGORY HOLTGRAVE
PRESIDENT
CATHEDRAL HIGH SCHOOL

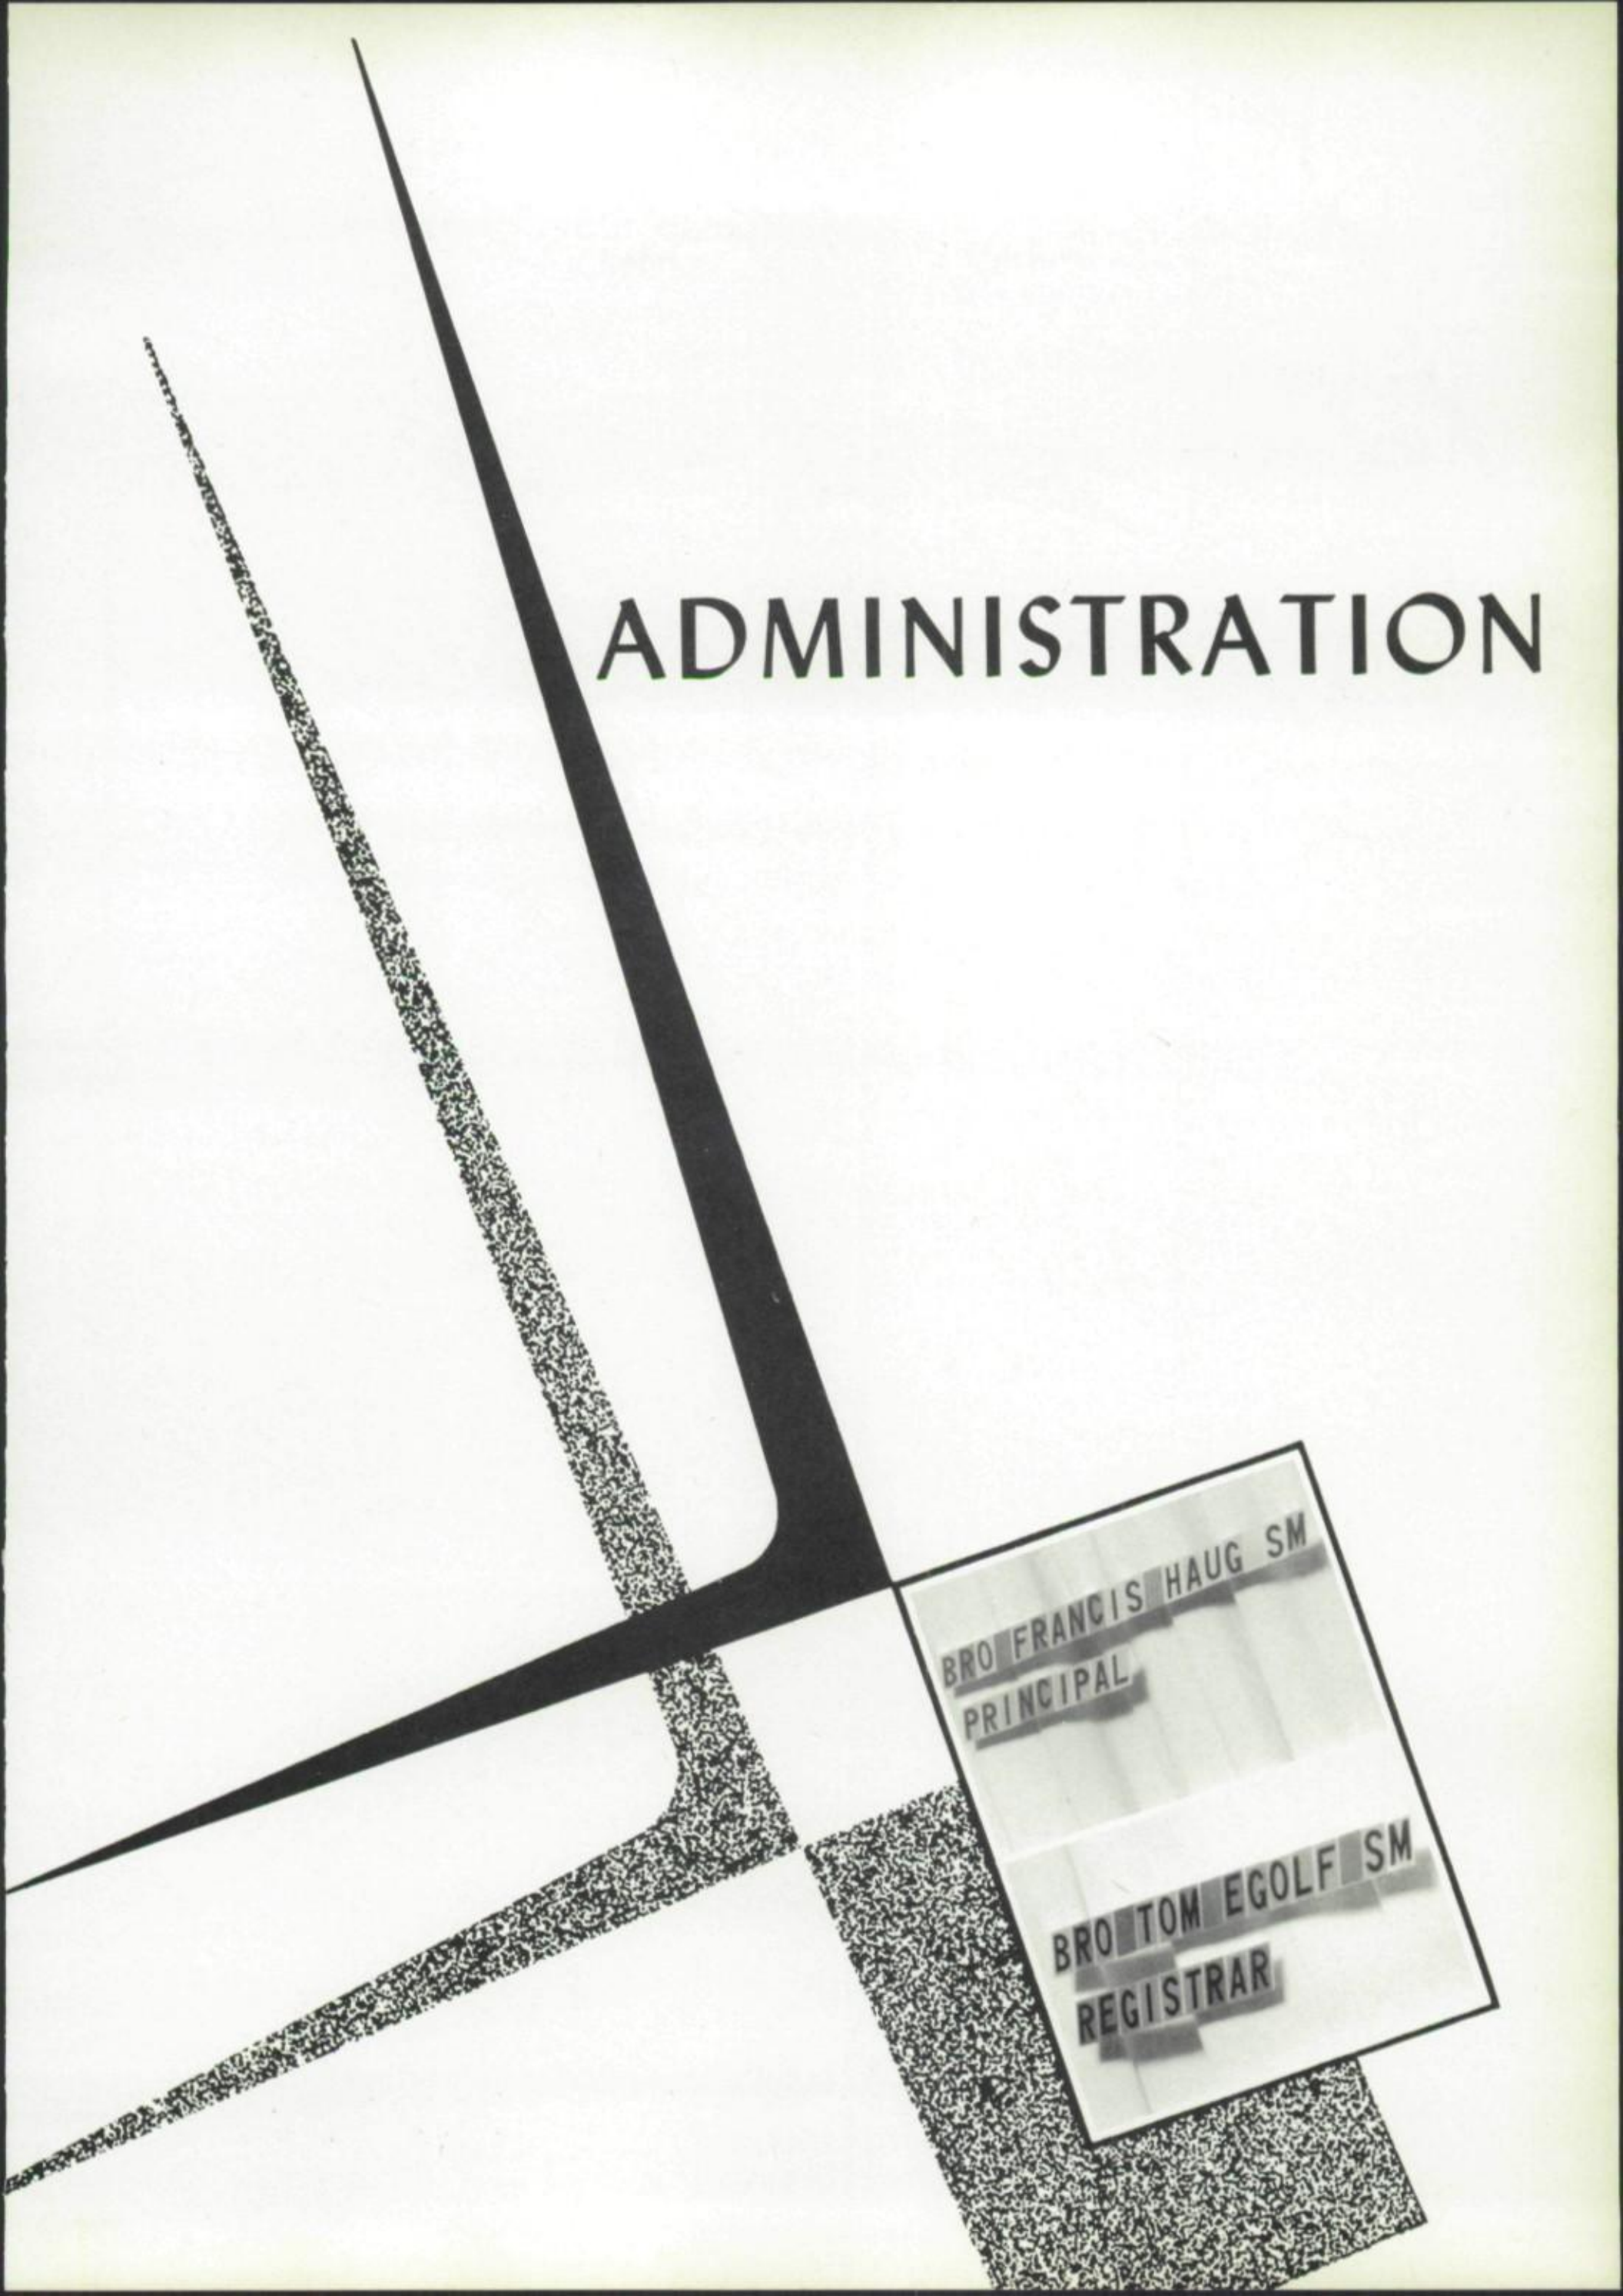

THESE ARE OUR BEST DAYS, the days we will always cherish and remember with deep feeling and affection. These days are filled with learning, not only of factual knowledge but of the knowledge of life as well. We learn how to work together and surmount our goals. We learn to lose as well as to win.

In this volume we have tried to catch inside glances of the students that make up C.H.S. Here you will view us in the classroom, on the sports scene, and in our many colorful activities.

As we present to you our 1963 CRUSADER, we hope that you will agree with us—that these are truly OUR BEST DAYS.

Dear Graduates:

Most of you came to Cathedral High four years ago with the good qualities and the defects of typical freshmen. Now, at graduation, you leave, again typically strong and weak. All of you have succeeded and all of you are failures, depending on the point of view. No one of you is a perfect graduate; no one of you has fallen completely short of the mark.

When you came as typical freshmen, you were eager, enthusiastic, somewhat simple, wholehearted, immature. You were ready to receive and also ready to give. As you progressed through school and lost some of your eagerness and simplicity, you were less ready to give and oftentimes less ready to receive. Conversely, the giving that you offered was more mature, and the receiving that you accepted was more thoughtful. And this process, too, was organic and typical.

How well you have succeeded in high school or how short you have fallen is the measure of the present worth of your education. But over and above its present worth, your schooling at Cathedral should prove of inestimable value throughout the long haul which is life.

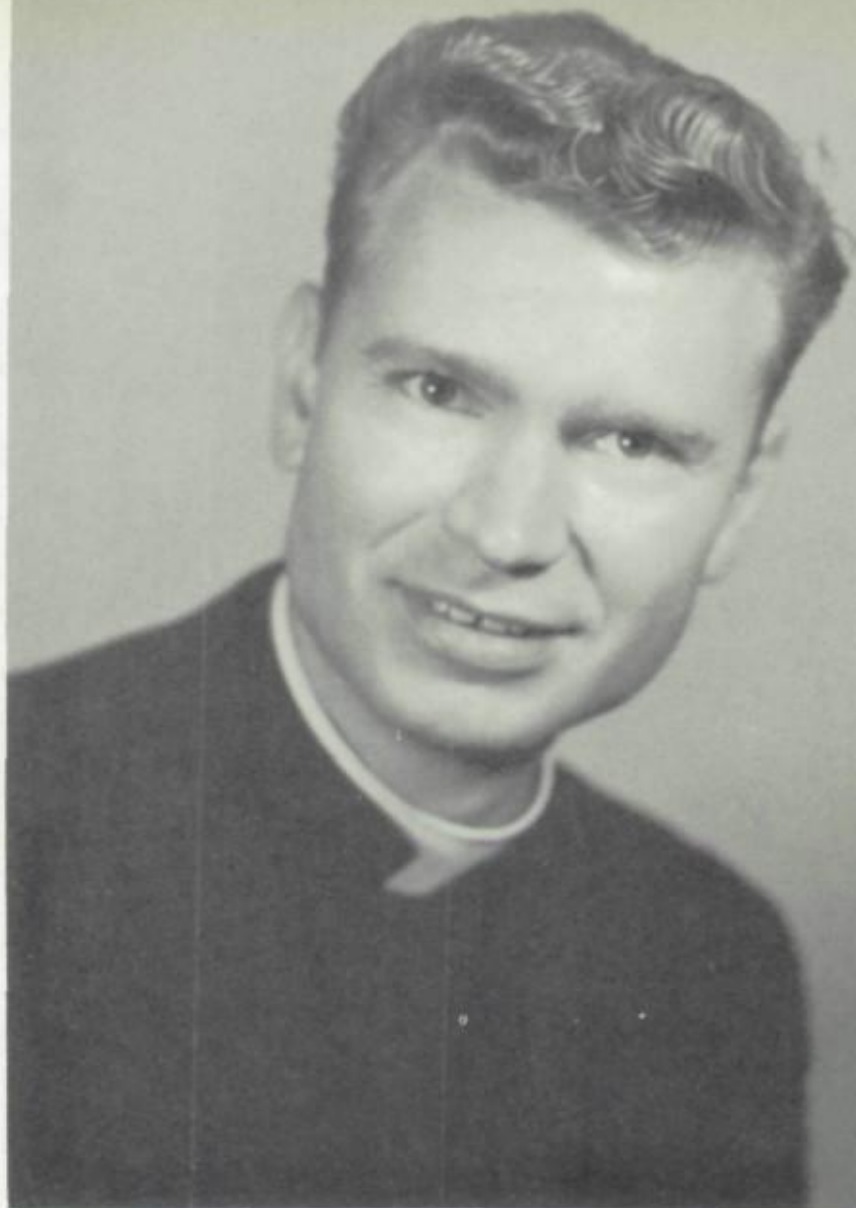

For here at Cathedral you have received a good, solid education. You have lived in an atmosphere of mutual respect and Christian joy. You have been supported in your weaknesses and encouraged in your strengths. Above all, you have never been left in doubt, both by word and by example, as to the principles which should govern your life as a follower of Christ. When these principles become fully and maturely operative, then you will know the real value of your years here at Cathedral.

Looking back on your education, you may have reached one important conclusion, namely, that insofar as you received gratefully from others and gave unselfishly of yourself you have attained fulfillment. It is true that your vision is still limited and your interests, for the most part, self-centered. However, it is also true that you have been well-grounded in response to duty, in attitudes of tolerance and compassion, and in a sense of your dignity as a son of Christ's Mother.

My wish for you at graduation is that every year may find you more maturely and more serenely a grateful and unselfish son in Mary's family.

Sincerely in J.M.J.,
Brother Francis Haug, S.M.
